◆ Unique Offering! Scott Fisher

- Scoutbook Scoutbook is FREE for all units as of January 2019. Attend for the latest info. Scott Fisher, from our Northeast Region, became the volunteer National Scoutbook Champion upon the acquisition of Scoutbook by the BSA in early 2015 and founded and chaired the national Scoutbook User Advisory Council (SUAC) to support Scoutbook users from October of 2015. Having presented Scoutbook over a hundred times nationally, regionally, and locally, Scott now volunteers user support daily via the Scoutbook Facebook page, the Scoutbook.com forums, email, phone and in person.

◆ Special Guest!, Wendy Kurten

- Facebook Geofencing Create a virtual geographic area so that all who are in it or pass through will see your post. How to geofence and success stories from around the country. Wendy Kurten is the Northeast Region Team Lead and National Alliance Director.

◆ Family Scouting Recruiting PPC Membership Committee

- Girls 5-10-years-old can now be Cub Scouts! Girls 11-17-years old can now join Scouts BSA (formerly called Boy Scouts). Don't let the girls in your town miss out on these great opportunities to be part of the Boy Scouts of America. Find out how to get girls involved in your Cub Scout Pack, and how to start a Scouts BSA All-Girl Troop or steer girls towards an All-Girl Troop near you.

◆ Camp Master Popcorn Website Training

- Camp Master has a new website. We'll take you step by step through it. If you are a returning 2019 Kernel who was trained in 2018, this counts as your training for part of the 2% Preparing Your Unit Commission.

◆ New Member Coordinator Training

- This is the official three-module training course. Attendees will receive a course completion credit.
