

Patriots' Path Webelos to Scout Transition Plan

Why an emphasis on Webelos to Scout Transition?

The passage from Cub Scout pack to Boy Scout troop should be smooth, with no time lost in between. By the time Arrow of Light den Scouts are ready to cross over, they and their families should be familiar and comfortable with the youth and adult leaders of the troop, their role in the troop and troop activities, and feel excited about beginning this new adventure. The 5th grade Scout's graduation ceremony should clearly signify his transition to a new level of Scouting, and could include the presentation of his Arrow of Light Award, a Boy Scout Handbook, and a troop neckerchief and/or shoulder tabs.

The key factor to improved Webelos transition is the ongoing working relationship of the leaders of a Cub Scout pack(s) and a Boy Scout troop(s). Ideally a community organization would have both a pack and a troop with leaders who work together to help move Arrow of Light den Scouts into a Boy Scout troop the same way schools move students from elementary school to middle school. To help assure a smooth and maximized transition requires cooperation between a variety of stakeholders. These responsibilities are laid out below:

Webelos Scouts and Families:

- Work with Webelos den leaders and attend events with the troop
- Attend council and district Webelos-specific events
- Obtain and carefully review the Patriots' Path Adventures in Boy Scouting Parent/Guardian Orientation Guide, 2017
- Ask many questions and obtain a comfort level with the troop, its adult and youth leaders, and the annual troop calendar of activities
- Assist the Arrow of Light den Scout in successfully transitioning to the Boy Scout troop

Packs:

- Develop a working relationship with the leadership of a Boy Scout troop or troops in the community. Most troops should have either an Assistant Scoutmaster or a committee member assigned to new Scouts. (Unit commissioners can help facilitate contact with troop leaders)
- Compare calendars of troop and pack activities to coordinate the activities. Community events can be done together, and planning can help prevent conflicts in the use of equipment and facilities
- Work with troop leaders to secure den chiefs for Arrow of Light, Webelos, and Cub Scout dens (see the Patriots' Path Den Chief Plan)
- Work with troop leaders to plan and conduct Webelos overnight activities
- Work with troop leaders to plan visits to troop meetings
- Invite the Scoutmaster and troop youth leaders to special pack activities and/or meetings with specific dens. This will help create familiarity and a level of comfort for the Webelos Scouts and their parents as they ease into the troop
- Plan a meaningful transition ceremony at the pack's Blue and Gold Banquet (or shortly thereafter). Have troop leadership be present to accept the Arrow of Light den Scouts as they graduate to Boy Scouting (the local Order of the Arrow lodge can also often be a valuable resource in conducting ceremonies)
- Arrow of Light den leaders should be strongly encouraged to move into the troop with the boys, either as Assistant Scoutmasters or troop committee members. This will give the new Scouts a familiar face at troop meetings and a connecting link to Boy Scouting
- If a troop does not exist in your community, discuss with the head of the pack's chartered organization the possibility of organizing a troop. A graduating Arrow of Light den can form the nucleus of a new troop

Troops:

- Select Scouts to serve as den chiefs for Arrow of Light, Webelos, and Cub Scout dens (see the Patriots' Path Den Chief Plan)
- Serve as a resource for overnight activities. The troop can be of service to provide equipment, leadership, and logistics for Webelos parent-son campouts
- Conduct an orientation in the Bear Cub Scout dens to explain the changing role as boys become Webelos Scouts, and then again as they become Boy Scouts. Explain how being a Webelos Scout will help prepare them for Boy Scouting
- Webelos den/Scout troop campouts should show Webelos Scouts and their parents what to expect when they move into the troop. The troop should cook and camp by patrol, and use skills in which the Webelos Scouts can participate
- Arrange for Arrow of Light and Webelos dens to visit a troop meeting. This should be planned several weeks in advance
- Provide each Arrow of Light den Scout a copy of the troop's activities for the upcoming year
- Work with Arrow of Light den leaders to encourage them to plan to move into the troop with their Scouts and to serve either as committee members or Assistant Scoutmasters
- Conduct a transition conference under the guidance of the Scoutmaster or the assistant designated by the Scoutmaster (use the Patriots' Path Adventures in Boy Scouting Parent/Guardian Orientation Guide as well as the Patriots' Path Orientation for New Boy Scout Parents Training Syllabus). Minimally this conference should cover the meaning of the Scout Oath and Scout Law, the advancement program, troop camping, the patrol method, summer camp, personal equipment, and the annual troop calendar of activities
- Work with the Cubmaster in planning a meaningful transition ceremony at the pack's Blue and Gold Banquet (or shortly thereafter). Coordinate the ceremony and arrange for each Arrow of Light den Scout to receive a troop neckerchief, shoulder tabs, and Boy Scout Handbook along with his Arrow of Light Award. Members of the Order of the Arrow may assist in the ceremony

Unit Commissioners:

- Be a catalyst in developing good relationships between troop and pack leaders
- Promote communication by scheduling a meeting of key volunteers
- Help plan an Arrow of Light and Webelos den(s) visit to a troop meeting and other joint activities
- Keep the pack and troop on schedule as plans develop for the transition ceremony at the Blue and Gold Banquet or shortly thereafter
- Attend the transition ceremony
- Be sure new Scouts have completed a new or transfer Youth application, that they have a copy of the troop's activities, and that they know when and where the troop meets
- Work with the District Membership Chair/Committee to follow up on boys who have not yet joined a troop. Make sure they are invited to join a troop
- Be sure Arrow of Light den Scouts join a troop in time to prepare for Boy Scout summer camp

District Membership Chair/Committee:

- Coach Scoutmasters, Cubmasters, and Arrow of Light den leaders in the transition process at roundtables, training courses, and through personal contact (use the Patriots' Path Adventures in Boy Scouting Parent/Guardian Orientation Guide, 2017 and the Patriots' Path Orientation for New Boy Scout Parents Training Syllabus, 2017)
- Run fall cub/family camporee/cubelos and arrange with packs to have Arrow of Light dens function as a patrol (where possible)
- Track and maintain records of Arrow of Light den Scouts graduation by using a wall chart that lists the transition record of each pack
- Work with unit commissioners to follow up on Arrow of Light den Scouts who have not joined a troop

- Work toward 100 percent Webelos transition
- Offer den chief training (See the PPC Den Chief Plan)

Council:

- Maintain and update Patriots' Path Webelos to Scout Transition Plan, Patriots' Path Adventures in Boy Scouting Parent/Guardian Orientation Guide, and the Patriots' Path Orientation for New Boy Scout Parents Training Syllabus,
- Offer den chief training (See the PPC Den Chief Plan)
- Coordinate and offer Webelos Woods and/or Winter/Outdoor activity for all Webelos
