High adventure is a highlight of Scouting outdoor experiences. It appeals to, challenges, and inspires the youth and adult leaders who participate. High adventure keeps older youth high on Scouting. Scoutmasters and crew Advisors must make it a priority to promote high-adventure opportunities and to involve members of their units who are qualified for these elite outdoor activities. The pinnacle of Scouting experiences, high adventure can be used to challenge, excite, and hold youth in Scouting.

This month's Safety moment: High Adventure

SUMMARY

High-adventure trips are intended to deliver wilderness and learning adventures that last a lifetime. Being both medically and physically prepared for these trips will help ensure they are as safe and enjoyable as they are memorable. While this is true for all Scouts, it is especially critical for adult leaders to be prepared!
